

Breast Cancer Ride Fundraising Tips

Big Corporate Sponsorship - Identify several large companies and contact them directly. They may be willing to sponsor you completely.

Garage Sale - Time to get rid of all of those miscellaneous items in the garage and attic. Ask your friends to do the same. Put it in your front yard and sell, sell, sell! Put all the money raised toward your fundraising minimum!

Bake Sale - Become Julia Child (and ask your friends to do the same) and host a bake sale. You can even have it in conjunction with your garage sale.

Extra "Change In My Pocket" Box - Create these little boxes for your friends and family and have them place it on their dresser. At the end of the day they can drop that spare change in the box. Before the pledge deadline, you can gather the boxes and count the dough!

Office Fundraising Challenge - Speak with everyone in your office and get them to challenge each other to raise the highest amount. Give the "winner" a prize. Maybe some movie passes? Gift certificate to dinner?

Answering Machine Message - This will alert everyone who calls you at home that you are up to something special! Let them know that you need their support!

Ask your local waiter/waitresses to donate a portion of one day's tips - Ask your local waiters and waitresses to donate a portion of their tips to your cause.

Ask your local bartender to donate a portion of one day's tips - Ask a local bartender to donate tips from one night. You can create a sign for the bartender to place on the bar stating that "All tips collected tonight will go directly to 'Joe Cyclist' who's riding up to 150 miles to raise money for people living with breast cancer." If the patrons see that sign they may be willing to dig a little deeper in their pocket!

Fundraising dinner at your local favorite restaurant - Ask your favorite local restaurant to host a fundraising dinner for you. They supply the food and you supply the pledge forms!

Happy Hour party - Invite all your friends (and their friends!) and get them to sign your Breast Cancer Ride T-shirt. Charge $10.00 per signature.

Theme Party/Dinner - Hold a theme party for 10 (or more) of your friends. Donation: $35.00 per person and you've met your minimum.

Movie ticket donation - Ask your local movie house to donate several movie tickets. Sell them and put the money towards your pledges.

Local theater to donate tickets to a performance - Ask a local theater to donate a couple tickets to one of their plays or musicals and auction them off.

Valentine's Day pledge - A great time for your sweetheart to make a donation.

Delegate - Give 10 of your friends 10 donation forms and ask them to help raise money for you from their personal contacts.

Creative Friends - Find a local artist or a creative friend to donate art or jewelry to be auctioned.

House Warming Party - Are you moving anytime soon? If so, ask your friends to make a donation instead of purchasing a gift for your new place.

Color Donation Forms - Capture your recipients attention. Send them in colored envelopes.

Signing your Correspondence - Get in the habit of signing your note cards and letters with your name and participant number. You will be surprised at how many people will ask you what that means.

Business Cards - Print up some inexpensive business cards (you can even do it on your own computer). Have all of the pertinent information on the card including your name, participant number, name of the event, website address of your participant page, and your address. Hand these out to everyone your meet!

Doctor / Therapist / Veterinarian / Insurance Agent - Ask him/her to make a check out for you instead of the other way around!

Dentist - Hopefully you won't have to pull teeth to get him/her to help you out a little!

Chiropractor - They have "cracked" your back. Now ask them to crack open their checkbook and make a donation.

Yoga Instructor - You have bent over backwards for them ... now it is their turn to do the same for you!

Radio Station - Call your favorite radio station and ask them to make an announcement on the air. They may even interview you. Donations can be sent directly to the Ride office.

Gym - Ask your gym to place a Donation Jar at the front desk. Leave a stack of donation forms at the counter, too.

Spinning Class - Have a stack of donation forms with you and ask your spinning instructor to make an announcement in class.

Hair Salon - Ask your stylist to donate $2.00 from every haircut they complete during the weekend.

Picnics - National holiday picnics are a great place to raise some money!

Mow-a-thon - Get your kids involved in this weekend activity. Check ahead of time with all your neighbors and ask them if you can mow their lawn for a donation.

Neighbor - Write to all your neighbors on your block (or in your building). Attach a letter stating what you're training for and ask them to make a donation.

Free Rent! - Ask your landlord to donate one-month's rent to the cause. (You never know!)

Meet the Press - Does your company distribute a newsletter? Does your company have an intranet message board? Take advantage of these! It's a perfect way to get the word out.

House sit - Friends going out of town? Maybe they will pay you with a donation to watch their place.

Neighborhood Chores - Are you a Mr. or Ms. Fix-it? A lot of your neighbors would probably rather pay you than someone else. Place signs around your neighborhood advertising your services (i.e. watering gardens, cleaning roof gutters, sweeping the driveway, fixing an easy plumbing problem, painting a room, etc.)

Karaoke Night - Who cares if you can't carry a tune. Spend a Friday night at a Karaoke Bar and sing your guts out! Have the announcer tell the crowd that you're singing for donations!

Talented Friends - Is there a little piano bar in your neighborhood? Do you have a talented piano-playing friend? Ask the owner to let you host a cocktail/piano fundraiser. Charge anyone who attends and let them know that it's a benefit for Breast Cancer Ride.

ebay.com - Remember the garage sale idea? Auction off the remaining items on Ebay.com.

Company Vacation Days - Ask your boss or human resources director if they can swap one of your vacation days for a day's pay.

Sell Spokes - Sell each bicycle spoke for $20.00 each.

In memory of... - If you are riding in memory of a loved one, include a picture of them on your pledge letter, on posters, etc.

Game night - Get out those board games and start playing! Break into teams and let the fun begin.

Host a poker game - Call your serious (or not so serious) card-playing friends and invite them over for poker night.

Bowling Nights - Plan a fun night of bowling at the local alley. Ask the owner to waive the fees and you can collect that money and apply it to your fundraising campaign.

Used book sale - Old books sitting in the attic collecting dust? Ask your friends, family and neighbors to donate whatever they've have and host a book sale in your front yard. Wear your Breast Cancer Ride t-shirt and put up some signs so people will know where the money is going.

Local Stores - Ask a local store manager what the hot selling item is these days and whether or not they would be willing to donate a % of sales from that particular item to you.

Curse Jar - Place a Curse Jar in your office and whenever someone says a bad word they have to open up their wallet, grab a dollar and put it in the jar.

Dress Down Day - Ask your company to allow an official Breast Cancer Ride Dress Down Day. For the privilege of dressing down, employees pledge $20.00 toward the Ride.

Company Grants - Find out if your company offers grants to employees who volunteer their time for charitable causes. If so, you can volunteer your time at the Breast Cancer Ride office and get paid grant money for the work. You may need a letter from us stating that you'll be volunteering in the office and we'd be happy to make that happen.

Church Bulletin - Place an advertisement in your church bulletin letting the congregation know what you're up to!

Pink Ribbon Distribution - Create small pink ribbons to bring awareness to our fight against breast cancer. Sell them to your friends, family members, etc.

Is there a teacher in the house? - Get your students to help you fundraise. Kids are incredibly creative and cute, too! Have them put together those pink ribbons for you!

Other Parents - If your kids play on soccer leagues or any other sports teams distribute your pledge forms to the other parents at the event.

Inspirational Book Marks - Create them and sell them to your friends and family.

Universities and Colleges - Contact your local schools and ask if you can put an advertisement in their school newsletter asking for donations. Some of the organizations may even invite you to make a short presentation.

Bicycle Companies - Contact a couple of the big bike companies. Tell them what you are training for and ask them if they would like to sponsor you for the entire amount! You may even get some cool riding gear.

Computer Screen Savers - Create a Breast Cancer Ride screen saver and send it to everyone in your company (*make sure to get permission)! A gentle reminder is a good reminder!

Mechanic - You have given them lots of money to work on your car. Now it is time for them to give a little back to you!

Rock on! - If you know any musicians, ask them to perform a benefit concert. Tell people that their admission ticket is a check made out to Breast Cancer Ride.

Share the Experience - Tell your story. The more you talk about your upcoming adventure, the more people will share in that excitement and want to pledge to you.

Children's Party - Throw on that Barney outfit and get out there! The kids will be having fun as their parents are writing you pledge checks!

Wine and Cheese Party - Host a party at a local restaurant and ask the owner to donate the wine and cheese.

Do you have a favorite magazine? - Call the editor and ask them to be your sponsor. If you have subscribed to a particular magazine for a long time they may be willing to give something back to you.

Fraternities and Sororities - Contact the national chapter of your college fraternity or sorority and ask them to make a donation.

Alumni Organizations - Call your own college or university and ask them to place an ad in the alumni newsletter asking for donations.

Remind Them - In case you didn't receive an answer the first time you asked, ask again! Your potential donor may need a little coaxing.

If you need help getting started contact us at 651-571-2873.

Good luck with your fundraising and THANK YOU!

www.BreastCancerRide.org